

AN ACT

To further amend title 9 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia, as amended by Public Laws Nos. 5-70, 5-95, 5-96 and 5-103, by amending section 301 for the purpose of providing that National election commissioners shall not concurrently serve as State election commissioners; provided, however, that current National election commissioners who are also State election commissioners may continue to serve in their positions until a new appointment becomes effective, and to provide that National election commissioners may be appointed for the National elections in March, 1993, and special elections resulting therefrom, and may serve without advice-and-consent confirmation for those elections, and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS OF THE FEDERATED STATES OF MICRONESIA:

1 Section 1. Section 301 of title 9 of the Code of the Federated
2 States of Micronesia is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 "Section 301. Appointment. The President shall appoint a
4 national election commissioner for each of the four States
5 with the advice and consent of the Congress. National 6 election commissioners shall not concurrently serve as 7 State election commissioners; provided, however, that if any 8 current National election commissioner is also serving as a 9 State election commissioner, he or she may continue to 10 serve as National election commissioner until such time as 11 a new appointment by the President becomes effective. Each 12 national election commissioner shall be a citizen of the 13 State for which he is appointed to serve as national 14 election commissioner; provided, that national election
15 commissioners may be appointed by the President for the 16 national elections occurring in March 1993, and 17 special elections resulting therefrom, and may serve 18 without advice-and-consent confirmation for those 19 elections."
